Yoga For Everyone

If you can breathe, you can do Yoga. A regular Yoga practice can provide a range of benefits for your physical and mental health, focussing on your body's natural tendency to well-being and self-healing. Physical benefits include improvements in balance, flexibility and energy and vitality. Yoga can also help to manage stress and anxiety, helping create a sense of calmness and better concentration.

Classes are designed to be inclusive, with a relaxed pace, limited transitions between standing and floor work and variations offered to suit different bodies and preferences. You can also do Yoga on or with a chair and I encourage you to use Yoga blocks, bricks, belts and the wall to help you get the most out of your practice. Students say the classes make a real difference to their balance, flexibility and to manage health and well-being. They enjoy the inclusive and relaxed nature of the classes and feel able to work at a pace and level that is comfortable for them. Students leave refreshed, stretched and relaxed. Nordic Walking

Nordic Walking is an enhanced walking technique that uses poles to work your upper body as well as your legs. It gives you a highly effective all over workout that doesn't feel like one! Nordic Walking is a fun and social activity that can be enjoyed in town centres or open countryside throughout the year.

Nordic Walking uses specially designed poles – not to be confused with trekking poles – to enhance your natural walking experience. With a technique that is similar to the upper body action of classic cross-country skiing, Nordic Walking is a genuinely whole body exercise that can be enjoyed at many levels, at low, medium or high intensity.

Health and Wellbeing Walks

Each walk lasts about an hour, no equipment needed apart from a waterproof jacket and comfortable shoes. They are free but you may want to bring some money for a hot drink afterwards.

Some of the walks take a bus to different start locations once a month too.
